

Fact Sheet on ColumbiaDoctors, Weill Cornell Medicine, and NewYork-Presbyterian Armory Vaccination Site

To support our community in the COVID-19 vaccination effort, beginning January 14, 2021 ColumbiaDoctors, Weill Cornell Medicine, and NewYork-Presbyterian will be offering appointments to eligible patients for the COVID-19 vaccine at the Fort Washington Armory in Washington Heights.

WHO CAN BE VACCINATED AT THIS SITE?

- At this time, individuals over age 65 with scheduled appointments may obtain the vaccine at this site.

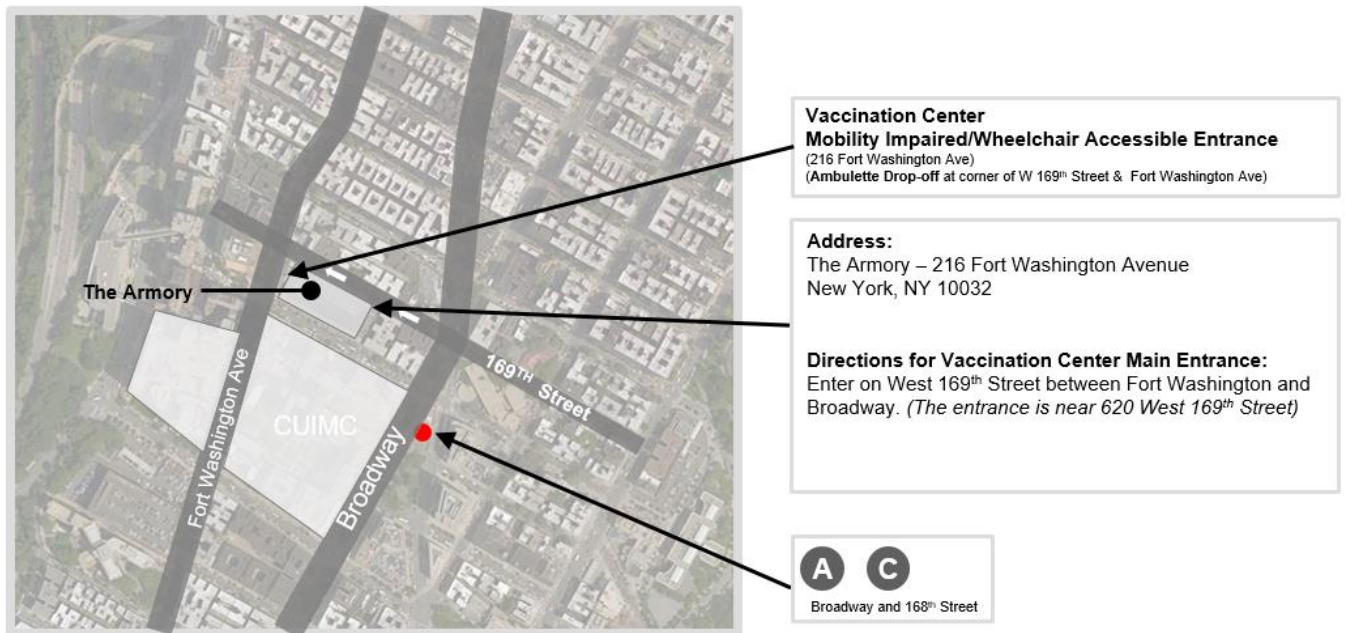

WHEN WILL VACCINATIONS BEGIN?

- Appointments will begin January 14, 2021.

WHERE IS THE FORT WASHINGTON ARMORY LOCATED?

- The Armory is located at 216 Fort Washington Avenue in Washington Heights at the corner of West 169th Street and Fort Washington Avenue. The Armory is accessible via the A and C trains. The train stop for the A and C trains is Broadway and 168th Street.

The Armory – 216 Fort Washington Ave

IS THIS LOCATION ACCESSIBLE FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES?

- The location is wheelchair accessible and meets ADA accessibility standards.

¿SE HABLA ESPAÑOL?

- Tenemos ayudantes y personal medico que hablan español. [We have helpers and medical staff that speak Spanish].

WHAT VACCINES ARE AVAILABLE?

- The Moderna and Pfizer vaccines will be used.

HOW CAN I GET AN APPOINTMENT?

- NewYork-Presbyterian patients aged 65 and older can schedule an appointment using the ColumbiaDoctors, Weill Cornell Medicine, and NewYork-Presbyterian Connect online patient portal.
- Patients who do not have a Connect account and people over age 65 who are not ColumbiaDoctors, Weill Cornell Medicine, and NewYork-Presbyterian patients can set up an account by visiting VaccineTogetherNY.org.

HOW MANY APPOINTMENTS ARE AVAILABLE?

- The number of people we can vaccinate each day will depend on various factors, including the amount of available vaccine.

WHERE CAN I GET MORE INFORMATION ON COVID-19 AND THE VACCINE?

- Visit these websites:
 - NewYork-Presbyterian <https://www.nyp.org/coronavirus-information>
 - NYS DOH <https://covid19vaccine.health.ny.gov/>
 - CDC <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/>